

WORLD DOG SHOW 2010

20.000 dogs from all over the world is expected to be seen at the

WORLD DOG SHOW 2010 DENMARK

Old English Sheepdogs will be judged by

Birgitte Schjøth / Danish Delight

Thursday June 24th

Check out the official home page www.worlddogshow2010.dk and join us and the rest of the World during these spectacular 4 days filled with top entertainment and top dogs

Enjoy entertainment like rally, dog dancing and healwork to music, narkotic dogs at work, World Championship in Junior handling, Obedience and agility., daily seminars, and then of course you can shop till you drop from hundreds of attractive stalls with everything your dog needs

Entry forms www.worlddogshow2010.dk as well as information on accomodation, rules and registrations, judging system, tourist sights and complete program for the entire show.

The finals in the Main Arena is an absolute must and not to be missed this year, so make sure you get seats for this event—free of charge and help cheer and support all the finalists

It's been 22 years since Denmark last hosted a World Dog Show and the entire press and European TV Stations will be represented broadcasting live from this event. It is equally important that our beed is represented with a large number of dogs, showing the world how our breed has improved through the years

We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible at the World Dog Show 2010 in Denmark

WORLD DOG SHOW 2010